

Family and School Association General Meeting

Monday, January 4th, 2021

1. Welcome/Introductions – Opening Prayer
2. Principal Update – Day 78 of school! We are planning for Catholic Schools Week (Jan. 31-Feb. 6). We currently have 225 students registered for the fall 2021 school year. Our goal is 255. Working with staff to also start planning February conferences and Valentine’s Day parties. The School calendar for the 2021/2022 school year should also be released by the end of February. We would like parents/families to participate in a new fundraising challenge presented by Hy-Vee, information is being posted through school newsletter and social media accounts.
3. Treasurer’s Report – We have received $215 through the Casey’s for Cash program as well as a $4,000 donation through Wells Fargo company matching. We have spent $94 on chairs for the school this last month.
4. Old Business
 - a. Main Street Restaurant Night: Was very well received by the restaurant. We generated $1,900 in sales and Main Street rounded up for an additional donation. They enjoyed interacting with our families and would like to host us again in the Spring.
5. New Business
 - a. Longhorn Dash: Will be held on May 14th at the school. Communications will start to be shared as we look for a 1st grade parent chair and Kindergarten parent co-chair.
 - b. Green Gala: Due to COVID we are pushing the date back in the hope that we can host the event in-person in June. Are also still looking into virtual options if necessary. Due to the last minute nature of the issue we are looking for vendor options that require less planning time and contracts.
 - c. School Board Update: We have had very little feedback regarding the tuition increase, so that is good news. The school board budget is in good standing due to increased enrollment and strategic budgeting cuts.
 - d. Kindergarten Info Night: Will be a virtual event. Will be looking into creating a video that can be posted to the website and/or sent to area daycare’s to help spread the word.
 - e. FSA Elections: Elections for the VP and Secretary positions will be held in April! Anyone interested in either position please let us know!
6. Closing Prayer
